LLM International Banking and Finance

Location: Bristol

Start: September, January

Tuition Fees: £12,500

Requirement: IELTS 6.5

Scholarship: ทุน 10% ถ้าจบ ABAC ไม่ต้องใช้ IELTS

Course content: The LLM in International Banking and Finance Law consists of nine modules in total, including a dissertation of up to 15,000 words.

To gain the Postgraduate Certificate, you will study two compulsory modules (Research Methods and Banking and Finance Law) and two optional modules.

To gain the Postgraduate Diploma, you will complete the necessary modules to gain the Certificate (as above), one further compulsory module (International Financial Crime) and another three optional modules.

To achieve the LLM, you will complete the necessary modules to gain the Diploma (as above) and also write a dissertation.

Core modules

- Research Methods
- International Banking and Finance Law

Option modules: You will choose two modules from following options:*

- International Contracts
- Globalisation and the Law
- International Competition Law and Policy

If you are continuing onto the Diploma or LLM, you will then take the following compulsory module:

- International Financial Crime

You will then choose three option modules from the list below:*

- Shipping Law
- Corporate Governance and Corporate Social Responsibility
- International Employment Law
- International Commercial Disputes
- Information Technology Law
- International Intellectual Property Law
- World Trade Organisation Law

Or one option*, not listed above, offered on any of the other LLM courses.

- Dissertation

Finally, if you are undertaking the full LLM, you will need to write a 15,000 word dissertation. This needs to be an original piece of work. You can satisfy this requirement by:

- carrying out empirical work that has not been done before
- synthesising issues not put together before
- looking at topics not looked at by people in the discipline before
- examining existing knowledge in an original way, or
- bringing new evidence to bear on an old issue.
- You don't need to meet all of these criteria. Your dissertation topic must broadly relate to your LLM award.

* Option modules are dependent on numbers so may not all run every year.
